California	California state law prohibits any inquiry into specific marijuana offenses more than 2 years old. You should not disclose any conviction for which the record has been judicially ordered sealed, expunged, or statutorily eradicated, or any misdemeanor conviction for which probation has been successfully completed or otherwise discharged and the case has been judicially dismissed pursuant to Penal Code §1203.4.
Connecticut	Connecticut applicants are not required to disclose the existence of any arrest, criminal charge or conviction, the records of which have been erased pursuant to section 46b-146, 54-76o or 54-142a, (2) that criminal records subject to erasure pursuant to section 46b-146, 54-76o or 54-142a are records pertaining to a finding of delinquency or that a child was a member of the family with service needs, an adjudication as a youthful offender, a criminal charge that has been dismissed, a criminal charge for which the person has been found not guilty or a conviction for which the person received an absolute pardon, and (3) that any person whose criminal records have been erased pursuant to section 46b-146, 54-76o or 54-142a shall be deemed to have never been arrested within the meaning of the general statutes with respect to the proceedings so erased and may swear so under oath.
Massachusetts	Massachusetts applicants should NOT answer the question pertaining to felony convictions. It is unlawful in Massachusetts to require or administer a lie detector test as a condition of employment or continued employment. An employer who violates this law shall be subject to criminal penalties and civil liability.
Utah	Utah Applicants should NOT disclose any misdemeanor convictions
